If you have been subjected to sexual violence (including sexual assault; dating, domestic and intimate partner violence; stalking and/or voyeurism)

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT
- to make a report to campus security, local law enforcement, &/or state police or choose not to report
- to report the incident to the College
- to receive assistance and resources from the College
- to be protected by the College from retaliation for reporting an incident

STAY SAFE AND PRESERVE EVIDENCE

1. GET TO A SAFE PLACE. If you are being stalked or threatened, or are concerned about your personal safety, call Baruch’s Public Safety (646) 660-6000 or the NYC Police Department at 911, or go to a police station or hospital.

2. CALL FOR ASSISTANCE. Call Baruch’s Counseling Service, (646)312-2155, Public Safety (646) 660-6000, or the NYC Police (911) or the NYPD Special Victims Division hotline, 646-610-7272. A public safety officer or counseling staff member can accompany you to a hospital or police station.

3. SEEK MEDICAL ATTENTION connect with one of the Resources listed in the next page or visit an emergency room. The Resources can provide treatment for injuries and for possible exposure to sexually transmitted diseases or emergency contraception.

PRESERVE ANY PHYSICAL EVIDENCE. You can decide whether to press charges later, but you can only preserve physical evidence now. Many NYC hospitals have specially trained “sexual assault forensic examiners” (SAFE) who gather evidence usable in court. SAFE exams are free and you can stop them at any time if you are not comfortable. If possible, avoid drinking, eating, showering, brushing teeth, combing hair or changing clothes before seeing a SAFE. But if you have done any of these things, evidence can still be collected and it remains important to seek medical attention. Evidence collection does not require you to make a police report or press charges, it just preserves these options.

The SAFE nearest Baruch College is the Bellevue Hospital Center, 462 First Avenue, New York, NY 10016, Phone: (212) 562-1000 or visit http://svfreenyc.org/center-locator.
CONFIDENTIALITY AND PRIVACY

Confidentiality. Some Resources can provide confidentiality; they are not required to report incidents to the Title IX coordinator or other Baruch College or law enforcement officials. These Resources generally include licensed health care providers, rape crisis counselors and clergy.

Privacy. Many Baruch faculty and staff are legally obligated to notify Title IX coordinators. Listed Baruch resources who cannot guarantee confidentiality will maintain your privacy to the greatest extent possible and share information only on a need-to-know basis. The information you provide to a non-confidential resource will be shared only as needed to investigate or seek a resolution.

Confidential Resources and Private Resources are available on an emergency basis. You may speak with a trained Resource who can provide information about your options, confidentiality and privacy, preserving evidence and obtaining a sexual assault forensic examination, and the differences between the criminal justice process and CUNY processes.

Please remember: criminal proceedings and campus proceedings are different: only law enforcement officials, such as the NYPD or district attorney’s office, can advise whether specific conduct violates criminal laws.

FOR MORE INFORMATION about your rights and available assistance, contact the Resources below or visit CUNY’s Title IX page at: www1.cuny.edu/sites/title-ix.
