An Upcoming Special Event: Richard Rothstein at Baruch College

Dear Colleagues,

As chief diversity officer, I appreciate your collaboration in spreading the word about the rich and varied roster of events regularly held at Baruch College in support of our growing culture of diversity and inclusion.

To that end, I bring your attention to a special event this September at the College sponsored by the Office of Diversity, Compliance, and Equity Initiatives.

on Wednesday, Sept. 5, from noon to 2:30 pm, in the Newman Vertical Campus’s Simon Conference Room 14-220.

The Color of Law examines the history of government-sponsored residential racial segregation in the U.S., providing a national perspective to Mr. Rothstein’s recent report “The Making of Ferguson: Public Policies at the Root of Its Troubles.”

Along with Mr. Rothstein’s remarks, the event will feature a Q&A session as well as a book signing. Lunch will be served.

To attend, please RSVP to diversityeventsrsvpone@baruch.cuny.edu. The first 200 people to RSVP will receive a free copy of The Color of Law.

In the spirit of community, I thank you for making Baruch College’s commitment to diversity, inclusion, and equal opportunity a priority.

Sincerely,

Mona Jha, Esq.
Chief Diversity Officer
