

Message from the Office of Diversity, Compliance, and Equity Initiatives

March 1, 2022

March Is Women's History Month

Dear Baruch College Students and Colleagues:

The Office of Diversity, Compliance, and Equity Initiatives (ODCEI) celebrates Women's History Month 2022 and recognizes the efforts of the U.S. government to commemorate and encourage the study, understanding, and celebration of the many vital contributions of diverse women in U.S. history. Additionally, ODCEI applauds the efforts of NYC, NYS, and U.S. government agencies to focus national attention on Women's History Month.

2022 Theme: Women Providing Healing, Promoting Hope

Expanded from the original National Women's History Project started in 1980, the National Women's History Alliance is a national nonprofit organization that is "a leader in promoting Women's History and is committed to the goals of education, empowerment, equality and inclusion." The National Women's History Alliance theme for Women's History Month 2022 is Women Providing Healing, Promoting Hope.

Federal, State, and City Resources and Celebrations

As part of this national celebration, the following federal, state, and city agencies, as well as national organizations, are sharing information and hosting special events throughout March 2022—some of which are online and require advanced registration. ### Women's History Month Celebration at Baruch

To enrich the celebration of Women's History Month at Baruch, our colleagues in the Office of Student Life have collaborated with partners throughout the College to curate a calendar of events around the national theme of "Providing Healing, Promoting Hope." Please visit the Women's History Month webpage for the full list.

Please join me and my ODCEI colleagues, Kimara Patton, Esq., Title IX/EEO Coordinator and Investigator, and Kendrell Lawson, Diversity Coordinator, as we celebrate Women's History Month 2022 by listening, learning, and exploring the above-mentioned online platforms and diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) resources.

Thank you for your time and attention.

Best regards,

Elliott Dawes

Executive Chief Diversity Officer
