You Are Invited to a Screening of BaddDDD Sonia Sanchez as Part of Baruch's Collaboration with the New York African Diaspora International Film Festival

Dear Baruch College Community Members,

With the generous support of the CUNY Black, Race and Ethnic Studies Initiative \(BRESI\) and the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, the Baruch College Office of Diversity, Compliance, and Equity Initiatives (ODCEI) is hosting lectures, panel discussions, and film screenings throughout the 2022–23 academic year. In particular, Baruch College ODCEI administrators will use CUNY BRESI funds to foster a collaboration with the New York African Diaspora International Film Festival \(NYADIFF\) to present virtual and in-person film screenings from the extensive cinema libraries of NYADIFF and Artmattan Films. Each screening will also feature conversations with the filmmakers and/or panelists.

BaddDDD Sonia Sanchez: In-Person Screening and Discussion

Our second event is an in-person screening of the documentary film BaddDDD Sonia Sanchez. Following the screening, Dr. Reinaldo Barroso-Spech, president of ArtMattan Productions NYADIFF, will discuss the documentary with filmmaker Sabina Gordon and our audience. Details and registration below:

Wednesday, Nov. 30, 7:00 pm
Engelman Recital Hall, Baruch College Performing Arts Center (BPAC)
Newman Vertical Campus (NVC), Level B2

For more information and to register, please review the flyer and visit this webpage.

We look forward to seeing you on November 30, and we will continue to share the latest in the series as events become available.

Sincerely,

Elliott Dawes, Executive Chief Diversity Officer

Kimara Patton, Esq., Deputy Chief Diversity Officer and Title IX/EEO Coordinator

Kendrell Lawson, Diversity and Operations Specialist
